

British Values Statement - Longcroft Nursery School

Promoting British Values at Longcroft Nursery School.

The Government are keen for every school/nursery to actively promote the fundamental British Values.

These values are:

1. Democracy - respect for democracy and support for participation in the democratic process.
2. The rule of law - respect for the basis on which the law is made and applies in England.
- support for equality of opportunity.
3. Individual liberty - support and respect for the liberties of all within the law.
4. Mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs - respect for and tolerance of different faiths and religions and other beliefs.

Below is how we promote these values within our setting:

Democracy	The Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual Respect and Tolerance
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure that everyone has a voice and is listened to • Encourage children to have an opinion and listen to others point of view • Demonstrate democracy in action i.e. let children vote on changes to the environment • Support the decisions the children make • Give them opportunities to turn-take, share and work together • Allow children to ask questions and value the questions that they ask 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Help children to understand their own behaviours and that of others • Help the children distinguish between and right wrong • Involve the children in the setting of class golden rules and codes of behaviour  	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Give the children the opportunity to increase their confidence in their own abilities and develop their self-knowledge and self-esteem • Allow the children to take risks, mix paints and talk about their own experiences and learning • Allow the children to explore the language of feelings and responsibility, reflect on their differences and understand everyone is free to have a different opinion 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Help children to understand that they are part of a much wider community (Arrange visits and speakers into the setting) • We create an ethos of inclusivity and tolerance where views, faiths, cultures and races are valued, and children engage with the wider community (Country of month support the various cultures we have within the setting) • Support the children to know and recognise the similarities and differences between themselves and others • Learn to respect other people's ideas and points of views

